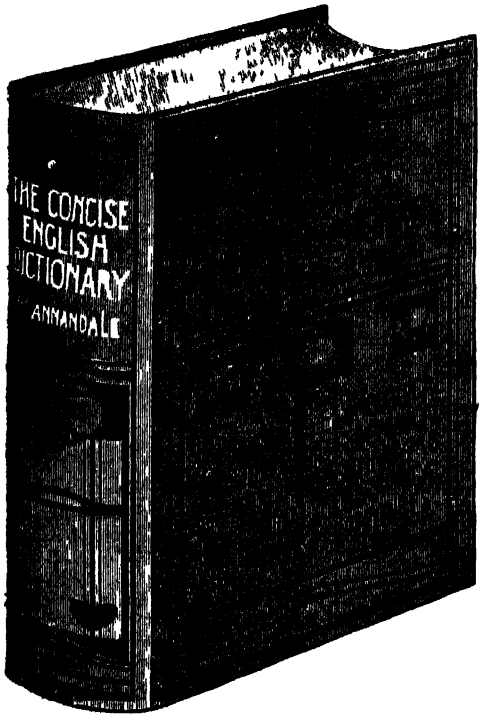
CANARY KEEPING IN INDIA.

BY ISA TWEED.

A Simple and Practical Book on their Care and Treatment and Selection.



With numerous Illustrations.

"The volume in question costs only Rs. 2-8 and treats of the subject exhaustively, even to the buying and selling of canaries. The expenditure of this sum will be a good investment for the canary-keeper. It will put money into his pocket. It will likewise be a boon to the little captives, for it will probably save them much suffering."—C. & M. Gazette.

"An excellent treatise and exhaustive book by an educated and enthusiastic expert."—Indian Field.

THE

INVESTOR'S INDIA YEAR BOOK, 1914.

BY PLACE, SIDDONS & GOUGH,

STOCK AND SHARE BROKERS,

In conjunction with G. H. LE MAISTRE.

Formerly Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department.

A single reference to the book gives the would-be investor all the information contained in the latest issued reports in a concise and easily understood form, and saves the delay of writing for information, and thus possibly missing his market

All information of value to the shareholder and investor is included in the Investor's India Year Book, including much that cannot be obtained elsewhere, such as the extent, seams and probable lifetime of all the well-known coal companies: the acreage, cost per acre, and working expenses per acre of all the tea companies.

Many changes come about in the course of a single year, and it is essential for the prudent investor to make himself acquainted with the latest available information, which the present edition gives every one a chance of doing, with the smallest outlay in trouble and expense.—Extract from the preface.

"Should prove a most useful guide and reference book to the Investor and intelligent speculator alike In the Mofussil the detailed information will be greatly appreciated." The Statesman.

"The new work however acquires additional value from the Investor's point of view from the fact that Messrs. Place, Siddons and Gough, the leading Stock and Share Brokers of Calcutta, have joined hands with Mr. Le Maistre in its production."—The Englishman.

"The Investor's Year Book is a valuable work of reference and is sure to be eagerly sought after alike by the Investor, the shareholder and the student of economics in India."—The Financial World.

"That the pages have increased from 327 to 158 is a sufficient indication that this year's publication is far more comprehensive than the previous issue It is indeed an entirely new book, and those who have been assisted in their business by the initial venture will doubtless not be contented until they have secured the enlarged volume"—Commerce.

"Invaluable. In short, to the Mofussil investor, the soldier and civilian, and the up-country banker it obviates the keeping of files of old reports and always having to ask one's banker for information. By the Mofussil Banker who is expected to know something about commerce and companies—be it only a talking knowledge—the book will be much used and appreciated"—The Pioneer.

"The Investor's India Year Book is a publication which has already securely established itself in public favour. Anyone thinking of placing money in rupee concerns, whether banks, rails or commercial enterprises, should safeguard himself by knowing something of the inner working of them. This year book gives him just the particulars he needs"—The Civil & Military Gazette.

"The Book is becoming more and more valuable to the Investor and publicist, and the time is not distant when it will be invaluable to both."—Capital.

Tropical Diseases

CURED QUICKLY BY

Tropical Medicines.

Kaviraj N. N. Sen, M.C.S. (Paris), &c.

Kaviraj Nagendra Nath Sen, Government Medical Diploma holder and member of various Chemical and Surgical Societies of Paris, the United Kingdom and America, has, by the judicious combination of the Eastern and Western System of treatment, been able to acquire wonderful results in all sorts of ailments,—(constitutional, physical or mental)—however violent and un-yielding. His system of treatment which he has been practising for the last 25 years has acquired for him a world-wide celebrity.

The Hindu System of Treatment, like any other Hindu Philosophy is transmitted from father to son or from the saint to his disciples. Kaviraj N. N. Sen coming as he does from an old family of the Physician Caste possesses many family secrets and commands advantages which are in themselves unique.

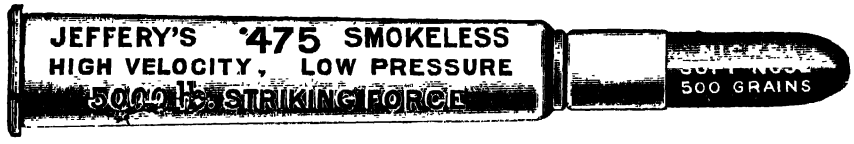
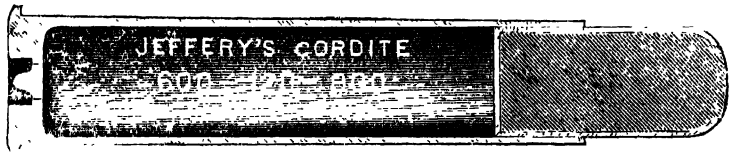
JEFFERY'S
SMOKELESS CORDITE BIG GAME RIFLES.

W. J. Jeffery & Co., Ltd., are the originators and designers of the new Smokeless Powder Rifles and Cartridges shown below.



These Cartridges and Rifles are generally acknowledged by the leading sportsmen throughout the world as being the best obtainable.

"60 GRAINS CORDITE" SMOKELESS POWDER.



Muzzle velocity nearly 300 ft. per second higher than the ·303. Striking force 4,000 lbs.—just double that of the ·303. Trajectory the same as the ·303.

The Jeffery's ·400 Rifle is the best weapon obtainable for the sportsman who wishes to make one weapon answer for all purposes.

The Jeffery's No. 475 Smokeless is essentially a Jungle Rifle, as its weight, about 11½ lbs., renders it too heavy for general shooting. It is a fine weapon for Tiger, Bison or Elephant.

VELOCITY 2,000 FT. STRIKING FORCE 8,700 lbs.

The Jeffery's ·600 is acknowledged as being the most powerful weapon obtainable. It is especially suitable for Elephant or Bison shooting.

INDIAN MEDICAL GAZETTE.

THE JOURNAL OF THE INDIAN MEDICAL SERVICE.

A monthly Record of Medicine, Surgery, and Public Health, and of General Medical Intelligence, Indian and European, with special Attention to Diseases of Tropical Countries.

EDITED BY

Lieut.-Col. W. J. BUCHANAN, B A., M D., D.Ph., I.M.S.

Published monthly. Subscription, Rs. 12 per annum. Single copy, Re. 1-4.

The Indian Medical Gazette was founded in 1865. It is consequently by far the oldest Medical Journal in India, and has earned for itself a world-wide reputation by its solid contribution to Tropical Medicine and Surgery. It is in every way the most important representative medium for recording the work and experience of the Medical Profession in India, and by means of its Exchanges with all the leading Journals in Great Britain, America, and Australia, as well as by its foreign exchanges with leading French, German, and Italian medical periodicals, it is enabled to diffuse information on all tropical diseases culled from an unusual variety of sources.

The Gazette is now thoroughly representative of all ranks of the profession in India. The reviews of Current Medical Literature are entrusted to Medical Officers in India with special knowledge and experience of the subject.

Illustrated. Annual Subscription, Rs. 6. Single copy, Rs. 2.

THE AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL OF INDIA.

OPINIONS OF SOME DISTINGUISHED PERSONAGES.

"I first visited Ganeshi Lall in 1873, and have on the several occasions hen when I visited Agra, always come to see first the father and after the son, and have always been treated with the greatest fairness and ation." (Sd.) JAMES N. GRAHAM, Carfin, Carluke, Scotland.—D. 4-2-12.

2. "'Will you walk into my tent parlour?' said Mr. Ganeshi Lall to me. lked in and now shall be obliged to walk home to America" (Sd.) J. B. ER, Bronze Ville, New York, U. S. A.—D. 14-2-04.

3. "I have returned here again like 'A fly to the spider's web.' I am ays glad to come and to go." (Sd.) GEO. GLASS HOOPER, Gwalior, India.—3-12-12.

4. "Finest Collection of Jewels I have ever seen or bought." (Sd.) Miss REMSEN, New York City, U. S. A.

5. "A Tour of the World will not be completed with Agra omitting the resting place of Ganeshi Lall & Son, where beautiful goods are sold at sonable prices." (Sd.) CHAS. J. GADDER, The "Touraine," Boston, Mass., S. A.—D. January 1905.

6. "It has been a great pleasure to meet Mr. Ganeshi Lall after sixteen rs, and to find that his embroideries and hand-woven brocades are even more utiful than they were then. It is also satisfactory to reflect on the pleasure ch I have had from my former purchases. I think that nothing more tiful for Ladies' dress is made in the world than the gold brocades of Ganeshi (Sd.) R. A. S. PAGET (Sir), 9, King's Bench, Walk Temple, London.—2-10.

"Ganeshi Lall has a wonderful Shop
'Twill pay you well to make a long stop,
The're Jewels and Gems that a King might wear,
And a thousand things for a Lady Fair.
Embroideries fine of Silver and Gold,
Manifold treasures both new and old;
Rare Jade Cups from Akbar's time,
And a hundred things one cannot rhyme.
Where Gold and Gems and Jewels unite
To change your purse and dazzle your sight.
Design and Fancy Science and Art
Are all combined in this wonderful Mart."

(Sd.) M. H. GREEN, 1138, Sheridan's Road, Evanston, U. S. A.—D. 21-12-08.

GANESHI LALL & SON,

Jewellers, Embroiderers, and Shawl Merchants, AGRA and SIMLA.

RESPECTFULLY beg to point out to visitors and the local gentry that when visiting Agra, specially with the object of inspecting some uncommon things, they should not fail to pay them a visit of inspection, for they are not merely sellers of jewellery on commission, but they sell what they manufacture, and manufacture what they sell. They have in their shop a remarkable and most magnificent collection of

Old and New Jewellery;

Rare old Jade and Crystal Pieces, mostly belonged to the Mogul Emperors;

Loose Pearls, Emeralds, Rubies, Sapphires, and Diamonds;

Oriental Art Work of every description;

Rare old and unique Pictures and Books; Old and New Rich Shawls; Embroideries; Silver Ware; Old Cold Enamelled Pieces; and all kinds of Indian, Chinese, Japanese, Persian Curiosities, etc., etc.

In short, the premises is a perfect Museum, and visitors may note that a visit to their shop and manufactory will amply repay the trouble.

To Sportsmen, Field Naturalists, Ornithologists and others.

. . . . . At the present time there is a large amount of information available which would enable the cultivating classes to reduce the losses they suffer from crop pests, but it is spread through the publications of the various Departments of Agriculture, and it is by no means easy for the non-technical reader to obtain or understand all the information available concerning any pest in which he is interested. It is to put this information in a simple and compact form that the present handbook has been compiled, and it is to be hoped that the large educated population of these provinces will make use of it in assisting the cultivators of the land in whom they profess so much interest. . . . . As regards the use which can be made of the handbook, the arrangement of the book is intended to enable educated persons interested in agriculture to identify any pest and to learn all such facts concerning it as will enable them to cope with it successfully. With this object the pests have been first grouped under the crops to which they do damage, and have then been subdivided into further groups according to the nature of the damage done by them. In the list of pests on pages 10 to 23 are given all the pests which are likely to be found on each of the commoner crops, but in the body of the handbook each pest is only dealt with once under the crop chiefly attacked by it. Plates have been included where possible to facilitate the identification of the pest.—Extract from Introduction.

ON

'ROYAL SPADES' AUCTION BRIDGE

The Cheapest and Best Book on the Subject.

Crown 8vo, cloth. Rs. 2.

THE AUCTION BRIDGE MANUAL OF JOHN "DOE"

Including a New Chapter on ROYAL SPADES.

By using John Doe's system, as expounded in this book, you can, if playing for only a Rupee per 100 points, save the price of the book twice over in a Week.

". . . full of interesting suggestions and good advice and written by one who evidently knows what he is writing about."—Madras Mail.

". . . He analyses the points of the new game very clearly and carefully, and advises at great length regarding declarations and contracts. . . . . Besides these he gives what he terms his philosophy and copy book headings, one of which generally summarises the lot: Be a good kid. Never tell a lie or take an unnecessary risk. His information, it will be seen, is given not without humour, and the book is one that can be recommended to all who want to have a good general knowledge of the game, as well as to those who are interested in its scientific points and knottier problems."—Civil and Military Gazette.

". . . . Mr. John Doe obviously writes from vast experience, and no one who takes the game at all seriously can afford to disregard his advice. . . . . We can thoroughly recommend 'The Auction Bridge Manual of John Doe.'"—Rangoon Times.

". . . John Doe may be congratulated on giving us a book which sets out clearly what we consider to be a most correct 'exposition on the theory, practice and philosophy' of Auction Bridge. . . . . The 'Manual' throughout is written in the light and airy style with which the author made dull precept attractive in 'Bridge Conventions.' It is neatly and well got up, and we can thoroughly endorse the author's advice to buy his experience."—Statesman.

GENUINE BRASS AND IRON PADLOCKS.

ESTIMATES AND SAMPLES ON APPLICATION.

APPLY TO MANAGER.

Which is the best Lock ? ? ?

This is a question always discussed, and you must have been puzzled in selecting it, but what is the secret of a Lock is still unknown.

I disclose that secret upon you, send for a skeleton of my "Rundle Pattern Safety" Lock with Lieutenant-Colonel Berton's Pattern "Facility" Keys and inspect the mechanism, workmanship, arrangement of Fastening Levers, the certainty of its being unpickable, non-interchangeable, secure, the impossibility of new keys being made, the facility of recognising the precise keys, at a glance, from a bunch.

As regards quality my Locks are unsurpassed and as regards cheapness they are uncomparable.

All the parts of my Lock are extra thick rendering thrice the Service of a Cheap Lock. Masterkey Locks a Speciality.

Hundreds of them are in use to-day on Lock-ups, Magazines, Jails, Armouries, Godowns, Iron Safes, and many other places where safety is a standpoint.

I supply my samples free to all Government and State Officials.

Drop a line to-day, to-morrow, or the day after, and your enquiries will be promptly attended to. A complete Literature, Price List, etc., will be forwarded, in which you will find many articles of interest.

I am a Government Contractor and a "real" manufacturer and not a Commission Agent.

Besides Locks I am a specialist in manufacturing Postal requirements, having been a maker of Seals, Stamps, Canvas Bags, Brass Badges, Monograms, Types, Parcel Scales, Weights, Belts, Letter Boxes, etc., for the Aligarh Postal Workshop since the last many years.

I make articles too numerous to be detailed, for all the Government, Railway, Native States and other Departments.

SECOND EDITION, REVISED. Royal 8vo. Cloth. Rs. 16.

THE LAW RELATING TO HINDU WILLS.

By SIR ERNEST JOHN TREVELYAN, D.C.L., Bar.-at-Law.

"Testamentary disposition is fast becoming a habit with the people of this country. The increasing volume of litigation on the construction of Hindu wills is a sign of the times. The law on the subject is derived from the Indian Succession Act, the Hindu Wills Act, and the Probate and Administration Act. The provisions of these Acts are mingled with Judicial pronouncements on the subject, and are moulded into propositions of law. The propositions are stated in this work with clearness and perspicuity which Sir Ernest Trevelyan has made all his own. The mass of materials from which these propositions are distilled is displayed in the footnotes. The treatment of the subject is scientific and scholarly. It seems superfluous to add that the present work has already become a standard work on Hindu Wills."—The Bombay Law Reporter.

ORIENTAL COOKERY BOOKS.

What and How? or What to Have and How to Have it. By Miss E. S. POYNTER, Zenana Mission, Durbhanga. Rs. 2.

This is an admirable little cook book. Nothing is mentioned that cannot readily be procured in an Indian Bazaar. It particularly appeals to those of moderate means.

"A cheap handbook, giving a variety of dishes made of materials readily obtained in any part of India." Indian Field.

"It contains over 900 recipes for strengthening and appetising dishes, besides many useful hints on household matters and invalid cookery. It is not too elaborate for the understanding of the ordinary cook, and should find a useful place with any busy housekeeper."—The Bombay Guardian.

Simple Menus and Recipes for Camp, Home, and Nursery, containing Menus and Recipes for meals in Camp, Afternoon Teas, Station Dinners, Meals for Children, and many useful Hints for Housewives in India. By LUCY CARNE. Rs. 3.

"A special feature is the meals for children, an original departure we do not recollect ever having seen in any other book devoted to the culinary art."—The Indian Field.

"Written by a lady who understands the limitation of native cooks and knows what it is to live remote from civilization; the directions given are all simple and practicable."—Englishman.

"Its 112 pages are full of useful hints and sound advice. The numerous recipes for every possible requirement at every meal are plain and simple and do not require a whole lot of things one has never got."—Madras Mail.

Baker and Cook. A Domestic Manual for India. By Mrs R. TEMPLE-WRIGHT. Second Edition, Revised and Enlarged. Rs. 2-8.

"The outcome of long experience and many patient experiments."—Pioneer.

"No better authority on matters relating to the Kitchen and all that pertains to cuisine is to be found than Mrs. Temple Wright."—Englishman.

The Complete Indian House-keeper and Cook, giving the duties of mistress and servants, the general management of the house and practical recipes for cooking. By F. A. STEEL and G. GARDINER. New Edition. Rs. 4-8.

Our Afternoon Teas and a Few Dainty Puddings. By "ALICIA." Re. 1.

"The recipes are numerous and nice . . . . . here is an excellent little brochure containing a wealth of sweet things." —The Englishman.

"An excellent little book too of some recipes for Cakes, Scones, Sandwiches, Puddings, etc., etc."—The Empress.

Everyday Menus for India. By W. S. BURKE. Third Edition, Enlarged and greatly Improved; contains the most complete Vocabulary of Kitchen Hindustani that has ever been published. Rs. 2.

PRICES.

Mounted on Linen and Rollers, Varnished, with Index	Rs. 5
On sheet, unmounted, with Index	„ 3

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICE.

A few copies of this Map, slightly damaged by damp, mounted on Linen and folded in Cloth Case with Index of 10,000 names are being sold to clear at Rs. 3.

This Map has been designed primarily to be really useful for purposes of general reference, and is specially worthy of note as containing a larger amount of detail than has previously been given on any similar publication. It is drawn on a sufficiently large scale to be suitable for Library and Commercial purposes, great care has been taken to give the maximum amount of information, and at the same time to preserve the legibility of the Map.

In its compilation the most recent and reliable material has been used, and the Railway and special information has been obtained from the best official and other sources.

CHANDNI CHOWK, DELHI.

VISITORS to Delhi and the local gentry are respectfully invited to pay a visit of inspection to the many and varied business institutions of the firm, where they will receive every attention and courteous attendance.

Among other articles too numerous to detail, the following may be especially mentioned as worthy the attention of Connoisseurs: Precious Stones, Diamonds, Pearls, Rubies, Emeralds, Sapphires, and series of other valuable Brilliants. We are the only Specialists in Oriental and Historical Jewellery of every kind, and have always on hand the largest and the best selected stock of modern and antique ready-made Jewellery, real old enamelled-wares of very old times and gold enamelled Jewellery, set with precious stones in oriental designs.

Old precious stones having manuscript of Arabic and Sanskrit languages.

Embroidery, all well finished, and high class Kashmere Shawls (needle and loom work), Rampur Chudders, embroidered and other Indian Shawls of all varieties, including gold emboroidered Shawls, etc.

Old Brocade, Kinkhabs, Saries, and all sorts of other embroideries accumulated from Indian princes and rulers.

Silk and Silk Embroideries of modern and oriental Chinese and Indian design always on hand, Persian and Mid-Central Asian Carpets, beautiful Gold and Silver Drawing-room Sundries, Tibet and Lhassa works, old Pictures (hand-painted) from various parts of the world. Indian Art Fabrics and Textiles, old Chinese Wares and Persian Tiles, old Ivories, Curtains, or Felt Carpets of all sorts, fine set of Engraved Furniture, old Arms and Armours, etc., etc.

We have the largest and most selected and varied stock of hand-engraved Cutch, Bombay, Madras, Lucknow, Kashmere, and Burmese Silver-ware, all moderately priced, comprising many novelties for Wedding, Birthday and other presents, old Burmese Bowls, very fine and raised work worth seeing, shikar work, etc.

Old antique Silver-ware always on hand.

The above are all very instructive and amusing, and it is no vain boast that other competitors have been fairly outstripped and the Firm is widely known all over the world for its highly skilled and delicate artistic preparations, and so the favour of a few minutes' inspection is earnestly solicited at our Store.

KANJIMULL & SONS,

CHANDNI CHOWK, DELHI.

Important: Our prices are all moderate and will suit all purses.

Should you be dissatisfied with any goods bought from us, we undertake, on your returning the same, to refund your money less the small expenses incurred.

THE LATEST EDITION.

KELLY'S DIRECTORY

OF

MERCHANTS, MANUFACTURERS AND SHIPPERS, AND GUIDE TO THE EXPORT AND IMPORT TRADES OF THE WORLD.

The great objects of this Directory is to bring the Buyers and Sellers of all countries into direct communication. The work, which is published annually, contains the names of the Manufacturers, Merchants, Exporters and Importers of all countries, and the Publishers can with confidence state that this is the only work in English which serves as a complete and accurate guide to both the Import and Export Trade of the entire world. As India imports manufactured goods from Great Britain and other countries, complete and accurate lists of the manufacturers of these goods must of necessity be of immense value to Indian Merchants and Importers.

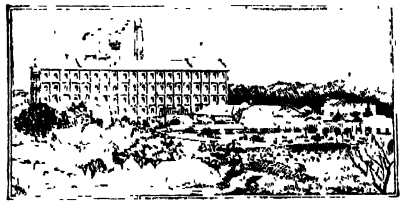
GET GOOD "GANESH"



WHOLE WHEAT FLOUR

Sir Michael Foster—the famous physiologist—says:—"The Starch foods form two-thirds to four-fifths of a Natural Diet."

Ganesh Flour is a Pure Starch Food. Ganesh Flour is milled at Ganesh Mills from the finest wheat the country can produce and is altogether free from adulterants. It is tasty, highly nourishing and easily digested. In quality it is unequalled. Ganesh Flour was supplied to the Royal Kitchens of His Imperial Majesty the King-Emperor during His Coronation at Delhi and Tour in other parts of India.

Government Commissariats, Military Stores and Depôts ...
European Troops ...
Principal Bakeries ...
And Biscuit Factories.

All get good "GANESH."

Miniature View of the Ganesh Flour Mills, DELHI.

The oldest and the grandest Mills in N. India.

AWARDED Gold and Silver Medals.

Prof. WILLIAM JAGO, F.C.S., F.I.C.,

One of the foremost Analytical & Consulting Chemists of England, testifies to the distinguished value of GANESH FLOUR.

Under the Distinguished Patronage of His Excellency Lord Baron Hardinge of Penshurst, Viceroy & Governor-General of India.

The Ganesh Flour Mills have pioneered the Wheat Flour business in the country. Their products have stood the test of time since 1894, and their intrinsic merit has won general approbation for them.

Let Good "Ganesh" go in your Godowns, Stores and Kitchens, And You'll Get Gay and Glorious.
